2. FRANCE: Soviet instructions to French Communists--Caffery has been informed by a "reliable" French official that Molotov has advised the French Communist leaders (a) to devote all their energy to internal Party discipline, and not to worry about the 2 June elections; and (b) not to start violent attacks on the Socialist Party. Molotov believes that such attacks would (a) merely drive the Socialists into the arms of other left-center elements, pushing them closer to the British Labor Government; and (b) possibly result in an Anglo-French pact which would form the basis of an anti-Communist bloc in western Europe.
3. GERMANY: Soviet espionage on US activities--General McNarney reports a recent "serious increase" in Soviet espionage on US activities in the Berlin area. Soviet methods include threats and bribes to German civilians employed by the US Army.
4. YUGOSLAVIA: Soviet troops reported on Greek-Albanian border--US Representative Jacobs in Tirana has received a [redacted] report that between eight and nine thousand Soviet troops are now stationed in south-west Yugoslavia near Ochrida, about 20 miles from the juncture of the Albanian, Greek and Yugoslav boundaries. (MIS as of 24 May estimated that Soviet strength in Yugoslavia comprised 5,000 troops in unidentified units.)
5. HUNGARY: Premier asks permission to visit US--Legation Budapest reports that Premier Nagy has (a) requested permission to proceed to the US following his official visit to London early in June, and (b) attributed the request to Hungarian popular demand for close relations with the western powers as well as with the USSR.
